IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Lebanon VAMC to Host Veterans Town Hall at Fort Indiantown Gap
Area Veterans encouraged to attend

For Immediate Release – March 7, 2017

LEBANON, Pa. – Officials at Lebanon VA Medical Center (Lebanon VAMC) invite area Veterans to attend a town hall meeting being held March 9 at 2 p.m. at the USO Center located at the intersection of Asher Miner Road and Clement Avenue, Fort Indiantown Gap, Annville, Pa.

The town hall event provides Veterans with an opportunity to be briefed on the latest developments at VA, provide feedback and ask questions to Lebanon VAMC senior leadership.

“Providing the highest quality care to our Veterans is our top priority at Lebanon VAMC,” said acting medical center director Margaret G. Wilson. “These town hall events provide an effective means of us relaying updates to the Veterans we serve while getting worthwhile feedback from them.”

Veterans are encouraged to RSVP attendance to VHALEBEventRSVP@va.gov.

Staff members from Lebanon VAMC will also be available to assist Veterans apply for VA healthcare and representatives from the Veterans Benefits Administration will also be present to assist Veterans apply for benefits or with claims-related questions.

The Lebanon VA Medical Center is one of 168 medical centers in the nation with the sole purpose of providing world-class medical care to America’s veterans. If you are veteran, you may be eligible to receive care and benefits from the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs. To learn more, call 717-228-6000.
